CoastWood Capital Group, Chartres Lodging Group and KKR announced on July 15, plans to open Hyatt Centric WaikÄ«kÄ« Beach in the former WaikÄ«kÄ« Trade Center. The new hotel is slated to open this winter and will offer modern accommodations including 230 upscale, oversized rooms and suites with state-of-the-art amenities, spa-like bathrooms, and signature services. Hyatt Centric WaikÄ«kÄ« Beach will be the first Hyatt Centric hotel in Hawai'i and will place guests in the center of the action allowing easy options for exploration.

The addition of a new, 34,000-square-foot, two-level Nordstrom Rack to the redeveloped WaikÄ«kÄ« Trade Center was announced last year and will open in the fall of 2016. Several other retailers will also open at the street level in newly-renovated spaces, including Starbucks, Jamba Juice and American Savings Bank. The Hyatt Centric brand was introduced in 2015 as a new, full-service lifestyle brand within the Hyatt family.

The idea to repurpose the WaikÄ«kÄ« Trade Center (which was previously an almost-empty office building with a few night clubs) into an upscale hotel destination was driven by the need to provide more much-needed hotel rooms in WaikÄ«kÄ«, which has seen the loss of more than 5,000 hotel rooms since 2000.
